Ex Libris

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America,

And to the Republic for which it stands

One nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

THIS IS OUR SCHOOL

With its red bricks nearly perfectly laid one upon another,

With its beautiful doors beckoning for one to come in,

With its long corridors with their narrow paths and few turns,

With its class rooms, still gay with class mates who soon will be leaving because of graduation, within which our teachers have spent countless hours patiently laboring to shapen us into our pattern of life;

With its library packed with inspirational books, magazines and periodicals, where many a pleasant hour of reading enjoyment was spent;

With its auditorium from which talented people gave much to inspire our lives. Many a memory of those inspirations linger yet.

With its gymnasium in which many a game was won or lost, our cheers are more than a memory.

With its athletic field where many a courageous lad and lassie learned much about what it meant to win or go down in defeat.

With its beautiful Campus where God in Nature dwells among the flowers, trees and shrubs.

From these halls, these classrooms, this campus, we go in silence and sorrow, loving, remembering, cherishing, thanking God for our school and the privilege of cherishing in our hearts fine memories of our school days.

FOREWORD

We, the class of '51, have given you another WAHTONIAN. We have tried to make it a record to be proud of and we hope that in the years to come you will be able to relive the many memories captured here between our covers. We have carried out the theme of WORLD PEACE, so with the help of our knowledge acquired in our four years here at the Washington Township High School and with the help of God we will do our best to make our theme a reality.

DEDICATION

We, the Students of the Senior Class of 1951, since we have used the theme of World Peace for our yearbook and since this thought is foremost in the hearts and minds of all freedom-loving peoples of the world, herewith dedicate this yearbook to "Fighters for World Peace," among whom you will find Robert Fessler and Rodger Sullivan who are members of our class.

Principal's Message

To you the "Class of 1951" who have so thoughtfully chosen the appropriate theme to carry through your yearbook,—"World Peace."

Symbolized by the laurel wreath, the dove of peace and the torch.

The laurel wreath, a symbol of victory, whose graceful evergreen leaves formed the wreath that crowned the victor in ancient time; the dove of peace, the symbol of love, brotherhood, and the triumph of the principles of peace; the torch, a symbol of light.

Within six brief years our post war world has become an armed camp, tense with waiting, watching, and, yes, secret planning.

Men and nations are bogged down in the quicksands of deceit, disunion, suspicion, and the lust for world power.

The prospects for tomorrow for you, the class of 1951, are not pretty, nor pleasant, nor reassuring. It holds too much fear and pessimism.

Today holds the challenge of accomplishment for young people who have love, hope, and faith in their hearts. All that can be offered beyond what we have tried to accomplish with you during the past four years is the following challenge which should lift, at least, in part the dark curtain which surrounds you today:

(1) Keep your world from growing small about you.

(2) Keep before you in your mind the spiritual facts of God given importance.

(3) Keep your heart and mind fastened on the highest ideals you know.

Regardless of the world situation today, you, as an individual, must go forth to meet it. As you go forth to your chosen work, I urge you never to lose sight of the many fine things that your high school has tried to do for you, always looking back with pride and joy on the privilege of being an alumnus of Washington Township High School.

It is altogether fitting that the "Class of 51" has taken up the torch to light the path to peace. It is my desire that the torch be passed to the underclassmen in order that the crusade may be continued for world peace.

Senior Class Song

HAIL TO DEAR TOWNSHIP

Words by Gertrude Shank Music adapted from Rubinstein's "Melody in F"

Hail to dear Township, the school that we love,
Hail to the class we are all a part of—
Hail to our teachers and friends everyone,
We're here to greet you now;

We wish to thank you for both work and fun—
We've had a swell time but now it is done—
And we would express our opinion and view
And say how we will miss you.

We will be leaving your warm and sheltering walls,
We will remember no matter what befalls:
Through life we must go—We'll use what we know
To better the place that we face as our world.

Aches, Pains, Grief, Strains,
Tears, Sighs, Bad Lies
Hate, Strife, Death and Life—

Hail to dear Township, the school that we love,
Hail to the class we are all a part of—
Hail to our teachers and friends everyone,
We're here to tell you now;

We'll soon be leaving this old familiar hall,
But in our hearts we'll ever hear its call;
Although we feel said—It isn't so bad—
If we learn to smile all the while we'll be glad.

Live and love
Blue skies above
Will follow you all your life through
And you will know it's partly due to high school;

So hail to dear Township, the school that we love,
Hail to the class we are all a part of—
And in this life we will try our best to do.

So every lad and every lass in this our graduating class
We wish to bid farewell to you;
But sorrow we shun, our honors we've won
The Seniors, the Leaders, the Class of Fifty-One.

The Voyage of the Good Ship '51

In the year 1947-48, early in September, there set sail over the Sea of Knowledge a magnificent fleet proudly bearing aloft floating banners of Old Rose and Gray. This fleet was headed for a far distant land called "The Land of Graduation," which could be reached only after a long voyage of four years over the much traveled, but to them unknown sea. There were four isles—Freshman, Sophomore, or the Land of Wise Fools; Junior, and Senior, or the Land of the Owls—to be throuoghly explored before reaching the promised land. On board the vessels which had been recruited from such minor isles as Roadside, Wayne Heights, Zullinger, Monterey, and other ports, each composed a fleet. There were seventy-four voyagers called Freshmen, each firmly resolved to succeed or go down with the ship.

The first port reached was Freshman Isle. Upon arriving there we elected the ship's officers to help us during our stay there. They were as follows:

President—Edgar Carbaugh.

Vice President—Barry Barlup.

Secretary—Gertrude Shank.

Treasurer—Lois Hess.

Historian—Dorothy Harbaugh.

We were under the expert supervision of Mrs. Neill and Mrs. Kreps.

We chose as our ship's colors Old Rose and Gray; Flower—Pink Rose; and our ship's motto, "Get wisdom, get understanding, forget it not."

We had a ship's Halloween Party on October 31, 1947.

During our stay here Beatrice Tully, Betty Muth, and Paul Monn joined us. We also lost a few. They were: Betty Calimer, Lindy Federoff, Junior Goetz, Betty Muth, Beatrice Tully, Dick Gardner, John Stem, Guy Eyler, Paul Monn, Bill Sanders, Ruth Swisher.

After an enjoyable year, the Freshmen started on a three month voyage for the Isle of Wise Fools or Sophomore Isle. As we neared this isle we felt our heads beginning to swell and thought ourselves very wise indeed. Everything was now quite different from Freshman Isle. Part of our food was changed; we now had Geometry in place of Algebra, besides many other rearrangements of the menu, though most of our number relished the change exceedingly. A few were heard to lament for the more easily digested fare of Freshman Isle.

While here we elected new ship's officers. They were as follows:

President—Benjamin Moudy.

Vice President—Donald Batson.

Secretary—Gertrude Shank.

Treasurer—Lois Hess.

Our new supervisors were Miss Eyler and Miss Witmer.

We had our ship's party October 22, 1948, during which we enjoyed a movie and delicious refreshments.

We picked up a few new passengers. They were: Doris Batson, Donald Batson, Juanita Greene, Marion Buhrman, Doris Lynn, Jacqueline Stewart, Edwin Newman, Marie Shifflet, Betty Ford.

We also lost a few more. They were: Richard Bender, Martha Crilly, Ronald Robinson, Robert McCleaf, Ray Swisher, Mary Patterson, Edwin Newman, Bernice Scott, Annie Stem, Jean Gladhill, Marion Buhrman.

After an enjoyable year we set off for Junior Isle. It was reached and all the voyagers that landed spent a very pleasant year.

Again we elected new ship's officers. They were:

President—Donald Batson.

Vice President—Richard Eigenbrode.

Secretary—Nancy Stunkard.

Treasurer—Clara McCleaf.

Our new supervisors were Miss Denkovich and Mr. Davison.

We had our ship's party November 2, 1949. Everyone had a good time. We also held a dance called the Junior-Senior Prom, under the expert guidance of Miss Rohrbaugh and Mr. Davison. We owe thanks to Gertrude Shank for the nice decorations. Delores Snively made sure that invitations were sent and we thank Elaine Carbaugh for the tasty refreshments. The success of the prom was due to everyone.

We picked up two new passengers this year. Richard Eigenbrode and Lenora Hurd. We lost: Doris Lynn, Haidiee Rowe, Janet Knott, Joanne Sease, Janet Smith, Harold Whitmore, Romert Marshall, James Dick, Juanita Greene, Alvey Ford.

We set out for and at long last reached Senior Isle or the End of Isles. Here we found unexpected pleasures in store for us.

Again we had to elect new ship's officers. They were:

President—Richard Eigenbrode.

Vice President—Gertrude Shank.

Secretary—Dolores Snively.

Treasurer—Clara McCleaf.

Our historian is still Dorothy Harbaugh.

Our new advisers were Miss Miller and Miss Rohrbaugh.

We held a food sale which turned out very successfully.

We had another ship's party October 4, 1950. It was a success. Many parents were present and a good time was had by all.

We were guests of the Juniors at the Junior-Senior Prom. We all had a very delightful time.

Toward the end of our sojourn on the isle we produced, under the direction of Miss Miller and Miss Rohrbaugh, a play, entitled, "Shirt Sleeves."

During the year we picked up two new passengers. They were Eubert Burgess and Eugene Weikert. We lost: Marie Barnhart, Donald Batson, Doris Batson, Joan Cook, Phyllis Davis, Robert Fessler, Arlene Garling, Lois Kipe, Marie Shifflet, Rodger Sullivan, Betty Farrow.

At the end of this year we found that Senior Isle was also the stepping-off place into the vast territory of the promised land. The stepping-off place was called Graduation and a great concourse of people met to watch us take this short journey.

And now the four long years have passed; we the Freshmen of 1947-48 are now the Seniors of 1950-51. We have had many experiences during our voyage of which the enjoyments far outweighed the unpleasantness. As we, the Seniors scan the horizon from the stepping stone of Graduation, we see many conquests to be made, and we believe that in the future, as in the past, we will show ourselves ready for any test that may be put to us.

Prophecy by a New Method or
Your Nose Knows

When your fortune phrenologists read,
They felt all the bumps on your head—
Which was tiresome and made you so weary
That the happiest fortune seemed dreary.
By cards, by handwriting, or trances,
You may learn of your next circumstances.
But I have a new method astounding
That is every old system confounding.
Did you know that the shape of your noses
Your minds and your future discloses?
Just to prove that my powers are ample
I shall give you a wonderful sample.
I glance thus at your faces all glowing
And straightway your future I'm knowing.

Ere many years Richard Manahan will be
An officer in the United States Army
And in a manner haughty shall expound
His wisdom and his theories profound.

She argues morning, noon and night
And wins, if she be wrong or right;
So Lenora Hurd will be, of course,
A lawyer, criminal, and divorce.

A dairyman, working overtime
With charges huge and nerve sublime
Robert Barlup's future-plain I see;
A very wealthy man he'll be.

Her fertile brain and ready wit
Proclaim at once the job she'll fit.
Gertrude Shank will write the perfect story,
Thus covering herself with glory.

Elaine Carbaugh and Eleanor Shafer, two girls of charm and grace,
Whose virtues are reflected in their face,
Will live in peace and plenty all their lives
As housekeepers de lux and happy wives.

Marilyn Warren and Jacqueline Stewart
Both in French and Latin bright
Will some day become
Nurses dressed in gleaming white.

Mary Ann Speilman, a ready wit,
As a nurse for children she'll be quite fit
And to some hospital she'll be a prize
For bringing happiness into children's lives.

Ruthie Harbaugh in some future year,
To some hospital will become quite dear,
As supervisor of the children's ward
She'll win most every award.

Grace Louhoff, a successful wife will be
And live up to her philosophy,
By being the very best of wife
And keeping Tom happy the rest of her life.

Our friend, LaRue Haugh, has a very sweet voice
And great big emotions and diction quite choice,
So she'll be a radio crooner some day
And sob all her troubles in ether away.

Clara McCleaf a success wants to be
And some day manage Gearhart's Pharmacy;
She'll make money in many ways
And live in luxury the rest of her days.

Dorothy Harbaugh, a cute wife will make
By wisely choosing Ralph as her mate,
And her household she will handle with care
Until she is old and has grey hair.

Eddie Bloom, before many years will pass
Will be the head of his own gym class,
As the best coach Township's ever had
He'll keep all the football fans glad.

Betty Jane Flegel who's fond of work,
She can't endure that others shirk,
So we very plainly see
She will run an employment agency.

Ben Moudy and Don Miner will be artists who
Will mural decorations do
And be, as well, portrait painters
Who'll make poor Rembrandt's glory fainter.

Young Paul Rice has great ambition
He'll be a wily politician,
To congress by admirers sent
And next, perhaps, be president.

Marlyn Heintzelman who has great ambition
Will some day be a radar technician;
He will make discoveries great,
And be the best technician in the state.

Ronny Martin and Laban Vanderau two farmers will be
And own many farms in Franklin County,
They'll win many prizes at the Farm Show
And if we know them they'll be always on the go.

Nancy Stunkard wants to be a success
And she sure will or we'll miss our guess
She'll be a business woman part of her life
And then settle down and be a good wife.

To be a success is Richard Eigenbrode's aim
He'll win many medals and have lots of fame,
He'll be in the Army and go where he's sent
And who knows—he may be our next president.

William F. Carson who wants to have riches
Doesn't figure in getting them by digging ditches,
He'll have all the money he wants and more
By being manager of the Acme Store.

Marie Knepper wants to be a good wife
And help keep some man happy the rest of her life
To her children she will give the very best care
Until she's old and has grey hair.

Richard Aughinbaugh a success wants to be
And someday be a captain in the United States Army;
Then he'll be able to get his new car
And travel around both near and far.

Donald Smith wants to coach a football team
He'll keep them fine and on the beam.
He'll see that they win every game
And help them achieve more football fame.

Eugene Baker will make a living by his voice
But that isn't his only choice,
He will make a soldier fine
And travel around in his spare time.

Clyde Yeager wants to be an attorney
And live in New York and make many a journey
And then he'll spend his vacation as he always wished
To go to the Great Lakes and do nothing but fish.

John Brown has an unusual ambition
That is to be a hillbilly musician,
He will appear on the T. V. Screen
And by many people he will be seen.

Eugene Weikert, known near and far
Got his inspiration while tinkering with cars
And as you can very well see
A great mechanic he will be.

In basketball she's a star
And in sports she'll go quite far
So Lois Hess you can plainly see
Of course, a coach, is going to be.

Jean Barkdoll will make a good wife
And spread cheer the rest of her life,
She will manage her home with the utmost care
And indeed she'll be a housewife quite rare.

Esther Binkley will be a success
Unless we surely miss our guess
In business she'll go quite far
Because she worked so hard.

Max Stuckey will be a great musician
Because he is young and has great ambition
He will be a famous radio star
Because he has a good voice and can play a guitar.

Dolores Snively will be an office worker
Because she is not a shirker
To her boss she'll be quite indispensable
Because she has ideas that are sensible.

Ernestine Daley has decided her fate
That is to be someone's mate
She'll have many children and a house so fine
Which she'll keep attractive all the time.

We see a married life for Anna Smith
She'll have a certain Sam to share it with
She'll have a very happy life
And make the very best of wife.

Eddie Carbaugh who is ambitious and free
A success would like to be.
As a forest ranger he will be great
And win many honors within the state.

Curtis Barnhart will be wealthy and wise
As his father left him quite a prize.
For a while he can drive a truck
And then try his restaurant for luck.

A very successful car salesman we see
He is Robert Toms the best in the country.
And when good bargains are to be got
Go see Toms' at his used car lot.

William H. Carson who kept the teachers in a panic
Will turn out to be one of the state's best mechanics;
He'll own many garages fine
And work there even in his spare time.

Robert Fitz with his ready wit
As a radio comedian he'll be quite fit
He'll make poor Bob Hope look silly
Because Fitz's program will be a dilly.

Eubert Burgess, a very nice boy,
Will own a garage—his pride and joy
He'll work on every kind of car
And help to keep them up to par.

I hope this very generous sample
Has proved to you my powers are ample,
And that the outline of your noses
Your future honestly discloses.

"Shirt Sleeves"

A domestic comedy by Charles Quimby Burdette

Having inherited his modest fortune, Franklin Rand and his family have never realized what economy and teamwork mean to the average family. When, almost overnight, the family is brought face to face with poverty, their reaction is incredulity followed by rebellion on the part of Julia, Donald, and Diana. Theodore and Esther, as resourceful a pair of twins as ever graced a home, fight valiantly for their despairing father, and are in no small measure responsible for the change exhibited eventually by the remainder of the family.

Into the maelstrom comes Margie Scanlon, having married Donald, the social rebel of the family. She does much to revive the spirits of the family.

Kitty and the baggagemen add much to make this a very enjoyable play.

Midge and Clarissa, friends of Diana, appear to admire her wardrobe before she leaves for Cumberland.

Some of the highlights of the play were supplied by the Auctioneer, Elmer, Alpha, Omega, and Richard Crandall.

L'envoi from the Seniors to the Underclassmen

(With Apologies to Kipling)

When the school's last roll call is taken,
And the inkwells are blackened and dried,
When the slowest teacher has vanished,
And the books have been laid aside.
You may rest, and in faith, you will need it,—
You may rest for a month or two,
'Till early in cold, drear September,
You are called to your work anew.

Then those that passed shall be happy;
They shall sit in a higher room
And cope with the world's greatest problems,
Their faces enveloped in gloom.
They shall find new Freshmen and haze them
Down in some lower hall,
They shall study e'en forty minutes
And never be tired at all.

And all the school shall envy,
As monthly they hear the name
On the "A" list of some brave "shark,"
And the "D"-listers blush with shame.
But each in his phase of school-life,
And each in his separate class
Is helping to make our High School
The one which none can surpass.

Also during that year we had an assembly program entitled "A Thanksgiving Conspiracy." Our social function was our class party.

On the following September, we found ourselves with a new name, "Sophomores." Our functions for this year were sponsoring a movie and a food sale.

FRESHMAN REVIEW

The Freshman Class of 1950-51 is busy taking its place in the activities of the high school. The main achievement for the school was the selling of a good many magazine subscriptions.

The main event of the class was its party, held December 4. Roller skating and dancing furnished entertainment for the evening. Although falls were suffered by some participaters in skating, no broken bones were seen the next day.

When we were here long enough (a half year) we were allowed to elect members to the student council. Having chosen Martine Eberly, Betty Shank, Robert Daley, and Paul Stevenson, these people attended a meeting for the first time in January.

Having become used to being Freshmen, we are now looking forward to becoming "gay young sophomores" next year.

Hi-Y

President ..... Paul Rice

Secretary ..... Marlyn Heintzelman
Treasurer ..... James Small
Advisers ..... Mr. Lohman, Mr. Hess, Mr. Martz

The Hi-Y is one of the largest organizations of the school. The membership is on a voluntary basis and is open to every boy in the school by virtue of his own choice.

The Hi-Y organization is founded strictly on Christian principles. It is the policy of the club to do good wherever and whenever it can.

There are many outstanding things done by this club of which only a few will be mentioned: (1) Christmas gifts for the needy. (2) Sponsoring every other year the Hi-Y—Tri-Hi-Y banquet. (3) The Teen Talk program. This year the program was well developed under the following lesson heads: A. What Am I? B. Slippery When Wet. C. I Am One. D. Is Your Prejudice Showing? E. Alive at 12:01. F. This Is It. G. Choose Ye This Day.

As the boys put it, it is a privilege and pleasure to wear the triangular red, white, and blue patch of the Hi-Y, especially when you realize the ideals for which the organization stands.

Tri-Hi-Y

Vice President ..... Gertrude Shank
Secretary ..... Elaine Carbaugh
Treasurer ..... Clara McCleaf
Advisers ..... Miss Eyler, Miss Witmer

The Tri-Hi-Y consists of ninety-six members. There are seventeen Seniors, thirty-one Juniors, twenty Sophomores, and twenty-eight Freshmen.

This year the Tri-Hi-Y along with the Hi-Y sponsored a movie entitled, "Democracy vs. Freedom." Also the two clubs sponsored a food and clothing drive to help destitute families in the community. Other events for the year were the Hi-Y—Tri-Hi-Y banquet, and the sale of Christmas seals. The money from the sale of the Christmas seals was spent to send delegates to the Tri-Hi-Y United Nations Assembly.

Quaestor ..... Beverly Eyler
Aedile ..... Laura Kremb
Adviser ..... Miss Eyler

This club was unified and established in 1947 for the benefit of those pupils studying Latin who desire to follow the thoughts and to dramatize the customs of the Roman people. Students who wish to engage in the activities of the club, although they are non-classical students, may join as "Aliens," but they can never become citizens of the Roman state.

A charter obtained in 1947 made the Latin Club a chapter of the Junior Classical League of America.

Two of the most important events of the year are the Roman Banquet and the Latin assembly program.

The club consists of forty-nine members. The whole club meets the first Thursday, Juniors and Seniors the second Thursday, and Freshmen and Sophomores the third Thursday. They are divided into groups because they belong to the National Honor Society for the Advancement of Latin. They will be able to compete for state-wide honor. They also are getting "The Latinium Auxilium," a Latin newspaper.

An honor key is given to students who have maintained an honor grade during their four years of Latin.

This year there havn't been many social activities sponsored by the group. The Alumni Basketball teams played the High School teams during the Christmas holidays.

Our annual Alumni play has been cancelled because of circumstances beyond our control. Work had been started and the play was scheduled to be presented in April. We look forward to next winter with hopes of again presenting a fine play.

We have a balance of $123.94 in the treasury at present time. We hope to hold a food sale soon to raise money to carry on some projects.

The dues of the Association are $1.00 per member, per year, to be paid on Alumni Day, at the registration desk or to the secretary or treasurer any time during the year. If each Alumnus will bear this in mind, and pay his dues promptly, we will be able to carry out more extensive plans and become a much more active organization.

This year the Association voted to send sympathy announcements, with the school seal on them to the family or next of kin of any Alumnus in case of death. The Necrology Committee drew up the plan for the announcement and selected a class representative for each year to check their class roll and inform the secretary of all correct names and addresses. In event of death of one of their class members they will send forth the token of sympathy bearing the name of the President and Secretary of the Association. We do ask full cooperation of all members to keep us posted immediately.

Mrs. Frances Sullivan was authorized to purchase the most badly needed supplies for her work and the Alumni Association will pay for them.

We are planning a full evening of entertainment for Alumni Day on June 16, 1951. Plans are being formulated to have a banquet at 6:30 P. M. followed by brief remarks and a business session. There will be dancing and cards from 9 until 12. It is our hope that many Alumnus will look forward to this event and plan now to be there for a time of fun and frolic. The annual election of officers will take place at the business meeting.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its Flag, and to defend it against all enemies.
